EduSpark - Challenge of the Month (February)

Posted on January 31, 2026 by EduSpark Admin

□ “Explain a Concept in 60 Seconds”

Can you explain what you learn in just one minute?

EduSpark invites all students to take up the February Learning Challenge:

□ Your Task:

Choose any one concept from your syllabus
(Science / Maths / Social Science / Language / Computer Science)
and explain it clearly in 60 seconds.

☐ Why this challenge?

- ☐ Improves understanding
- ☐ Builds confidence in speaking
- ☐ Develops communication skills
- ☐ Encourages creative learning

☐ How to Participate:

- ✓ Select one concept you like
- ✓ Record a 60-second video or audio explanation
- ✓ Speak in your own words
- ✓ Keep it simple and clear
- ✓ Submit before the last day of February

☐ Recognition:

- ☐ Best explanations will be featured on EduSpark
- ☐ E-certificates for selected participants
- ☐ Learning champions of the month will be announced

☐ Remember:

“If you can explain it simply, you truly understand it.”

☐ Who can participate?

Students of all classes are welcome!

Let's learn by teaching.
Let's explain to understand.
Let's grow with EduSpark.
